CROCODILE

Don Spencer/Allan Caswell

Published by MCA-Gilbey

If you're ever out in the Australian outback,
And you're feeling hot and sticky.
I don't suggest you go for a swim,
'Cos it could get rather tricky.
That log you see, floating in the river,
Isn't what it seems to be.
That log my friend is a crocodile -
It's no place for you or me!

Chorus

Crocodile you've got a wonderful smile,
And I must admit I kinda like your style.
You've got a beautiful skin and an affable grin,
But I don't want to swim with a crocodile!

Crocodile, you make a wonderful mum,
So very gentle with your young.
Your mouth's a great place to put them in
When you want to take your babies off for a swim.
But though I can see you're an ever loving mother,
As sweet as sweet can be.
I'll keep giving the same advice
To anyone who'll listen to me!

Chorus x 3
