Dig, Dig, Dig (Like a Wombat)

Don Spencer/Allan Caswell

Published by MCA-Gilbey

I've got short legs - that don't bother me,
'Cause I don't wanna go-a climbing a tree.
Down here on the ground is where I wanna be,
So I can dig, dig, dig, dig, dig it.

Chorus

You gotta dig, down on the floor,
You gotta dig - c'mon and use those paws,
You gotta dig with those big strong claws,
Dig, dig, dig like a wombat.

You won't see me in the hot sunlight,
I wait till it's cool - I come out at night.
I'm at my best around about midnight,
So I can dig, dig, dig, dig, dig it.

Chorus x 2

I don't like crowds I like to live alone,
'Cause I'm quite happy being on my own.
And when I want to find myself a brand new home,
I just dig, dig, dig, dig, dig it!

Chorus

Dig, dig, dig like a wombat. Dig, dig, dig like a wombat.
