FEATHERS, FUR OR FINS

Don Spencer/Allan Caswell

Published by MCA-Gilbey

Chorus

Feathers, fur or fins.

Feathers, fur or fins.

If it walks on legs or flies on wings,
If it runs or crawls or slithers or swims,
It's got its place in the scheme of things,
Feathers, fur or fins.

Feathers, fur or fins,
Shell or skin or scale,
They're mother nature's marvels,
From the ant up to the whale.
And if we ever lose them.
They won't be back again.
So let's take good care of every
Feather, fur or fin.

Chorus x 3
