I HAD A PONY

Don Spencer

Published by Mushroom

When I was a boy, I had a pony.
I loved that pony - the best pet that I've ever known.
We lived on a farm way out of town,
No bus, no train.
I'd ride my pony everywhere,
You'd never hear me complain.
He was a dappled grey with a silver mane.
I was so proud he was mine!
I'd polish his hooves and I'd brush his coat,
I'd groom him till he would shine.
When I was a boy, I had a pony.

When I was a boy, I had a pony.
I loved that pony - the best pet I've ever known.
I'd milk all the cows and I would do my chores.
And when the working was done,
I'd hop on his back and away we'd go - it was time for fun!
Well, we would ride over hills and we would follow the stream,
Maybe catch a fish or two.
And when it was hot we would go for a swim - my pony liked swimming too.
When I was a boy - I had a pony.
I loved that pony - the best pet that I've ever known.

When I was a boy - I had a pony.
I loved that pony - the best pet I've ever known.

(I loved my pony...

I loved that pony - the best pet I've ever known.

I had a pony - when I was a boy.)
